

IEEE Scope

1. Content in IEEE' s scope

Aerospace	General Topics for Engineers (Math, Science & Engineering)
Bioengineering	Geoscience
Communication, Networking & Broadcasting	Nuclear Engineering
Components, Circuits, Devices & Systems	Photonics & Electro-Optics
Computing & Processing (Hardware/Software)	Power, Energy, & Industry Applications
Engineered Materials, Dielectrics & Plasmas	Robotics & Control Systems
Engineering Profession	Signal Processing & Analysis
Fields, Waves & Electromagnetics	Transportation

2. Content out of IEEE' s scope

Art	Tourism
Philosophy	Religion and Spirituality
Mechanical Engineering	Social Sciences
Healthcare Management	Industrial Engineering
Educational Management	Transportation Management
Emergency Management

3. Gray areas(Content may be considered out of IEEE' s scope)

Chemistry	Agriculture
Biology	Logistics
Economics & Finance	Human Behavior & Sociology
Architecture	Mathematics
Mechanics
